[NUMB. 813.]

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY December 4th, to MONDAY December 11th, 1749.

From the Gentleman's Magazine, for September, 1749.

TURKEY and PESIA.

SOLYMAN, Pascha of Bassora, having revolted, and attack'd Babylon, four of the neighbouring Paschas have orders to march their troops to relieve that town.——The affairs of Persia according to advices by the Smyrna caravan, being settled once more, and Shauroke Schach (who had taken and blinded Ibraham Mirza in quiet possession of the throne, embassadors are appointing on both sides, in order to confirm the late treaty with Schach Nadir.

GERMANY.

The empress queen is again pregnant; a large army is kept up, and in very good order. The locusts, after ravaging part of Poland, and the neighbourhood of Vienna (where they killed multitudes with fire-arms, but were obliged to desist by the stench of the carcasses) took their flight, darkening the air, towards Bohemia and Bavaria, and did vast damage about Pilsen in Bohemia; being driven away from Budweis by the noise of bells, and discharge of cannon, they settled a league off on trees, the branches of which broke down with their weight, and tho' 160 sacks of them were destroyed in the night by burning straw under the trees, they came next morning near the town, and soon devour'd two cart loads of hay. They have advanced in Bavaria to Ratisbon and Aichstet, and cover'd 300 acres of land in Franconia.

ITALY.

Instead of the Italian powers attacking the Algerines, as they threatened, eleven ships of the latter have alarmed for several days the coast of Naples, intending to seize the king in the isle of Procida, as he was hunting pheasants, but were disappointed, and returned, finding the coasts well guarded.——A scheme from England for yielding Sardinia and Corsica to Don Philip, for a large sum of money or an exchange, is much discoursed of, as well as how much has already been done for the infant Don.—An earthquake at Messina has thrown down many houses, damaged most of the palaces, and churches, and destroyed many inhabitants.

SPAIN.

Madrid. The company established at St. Sebastian's being inform'd that divers persons carry'd on a contraband trade at the Carraccas with foreigners to the company's prejudice, sent orders to their principal factor to take proper measures for putting a stop to it. The factor, on application to the governor, obtained some troops, and met with no opposition to the king's orders in favour of the company, till he came to the habitation of Don John Francis de Leon, who had amassed great riches during the late war. This man assembling the inhabitants of that Canton with the negroes, sent word to the officer and factor that they must retire on peril of their lives. Some days after (April 22) he writ to the governor, desiring him to order the factor and other servants of the company to retire from the province, soon after with 500 men he made himself master of the Carraccas, and obliged the governor with the factor and others to retire to Guaira and Porto Caballo; he then appointed agents to take care of the company's effects, and with the rest of the rebels resolved to admit no more of the company's ships, pretending that trade ought to be free there. These disorders lasted from April 22 to June 24. The governor and ecclesiastic chapter of the Carraccas have assured his majesty of their inviolable loyalty, but represented that the only way to preserve his authority would be to abolish the company——It is newly made death for a Spaniard to correspond with the garison of Gibraltar.

FRANCE.

His most christian majesty, after a progress through Roan, and other places of Normandy, arrived the 10th inst. O.S. at Havre de Grace, and the same evening visited the fort at the entrance of the harbour. The next day, he came abroad at 9 in the morning, and took a turn on the north pier, whence he had a view of the harbour at low water, and of the use of the sluices. Then after hearing mass he went on board the Chariot Royal in the bason, saw all the different workings of the ship, the careening of another vessel, and afterwards visited the different manufactures belonging to the naval arsenal. In the afternoon he went to see 3 ships launched, and a naval engagement between 6 ships in the road, after which he visited the rope-walk, the citadel, and the snuff-manufactory. If the French king becomes fond of naval affairs, the influence of the royal example may greatly contribute to render France as formidable by sea as it is by land.

CHARLES-TOWN, December 11.

As Gold and Silver is now become scarce here, and what little we have likely to be wholly drained from us by the petty Traders from the Northern Colonies, who generally resort here this Time of Year, with their Beer, Apples, Chesnuts, &c. picking up all the Gold and Silver they can, by giving more for the same than it here at present passes current for: To remedy in part such an Evil, we hear, the Gentlemen of the Law has unanimously agreed, to take in Satisfaction of their Fees, Spanish Pistoles at 6 l. each, Doubloons at 24 l. each, and mill'd Dollars at 32 s. & 6 d. each.

Market Price of RICE, 57 s. 6. to 60 s. per Cent.
